

Pin Mill Cruising

Policy Statements

- Pin Mill Cruising is committed to the principle of equality of opportunity and aims to ensure that all present and potential students and instructors are treated fairly and on an equal basis, irrespective of sex, age, disability, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, marriage and civil partnership, gender reassignment or social status.
- Pin Mill Cruising is committed to safeguarding, from physical, sexual or emotional harm, neglect or bullying, children taking part in its activities. We recognise that the safety, welfare and needs of the child are paramount and that all children, irrespective of age, disability, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual or gender identity or social status, have a right to protection from discrimination and abuse.
- Children will not normally be enrolled onto a course with Pin Mill Cruising without a parent/guardian. Exceptions may be made on a case by case basis, if the parent/guardian gives consent and provides transport to and from each class. Children will be assessed to the same RYA standard of achievement as adults.
- All students will be fully supported during their course and will be expected to do extra exercises and reading between sessions and should inform their instructor if they are having a problem with any section. Instructors will provide extra help if needed.
- After a course students are welcome to contact the school with their news or for advice.
- Pin Mill Cruising aims to be friendly, welcoming and open to all whenever possible, but it is the responsibility of students to ensure that they are fit to take part in a course, and provide details of any health or medical problems. If in any doubt they should consult their doctor. If a health problem arises that prevents the student attending a course the cancellation conditions will apply.
- All bookings are subject to our standard terms and conditions, which are published on the website and available on request.
- Data provided by students will be used to process their booking and for their safety while attending a course. It will not be passed to third parties. Pin Mill Cruising has a data processing policy, which can be found on the website.
